

“Gianna, with the certainty that God wanted us united, you and I have embarked on our new life. In these months it has been all a crescendo of understanding and affection. Now, our understanding is perfect, because Heaven is our light, and the Divine Law is our guide [...].

*Now, our love is full because we are one heart and one soul, one feeling and love, because our love, strong and pure, knows how to wait for the blessing of Heaven.”*¹

(From Pietro Molla's letter to his fiancée, Saint Gianna, of September 10, 1955)
